General Nelson, July 27th 1841

My dear Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25th inst. in relation to the proposed purchase of the land for the proposed site of the new building of the Board of Education. I have the honor to inform you that the same has been referred to the Committee on the subject, and they are now engaged in a careful examination of the same.

I was this week in the country, and was unable to attend to the business of the office. I have, however, been thinking much of the subject, and am convinced that the purchase of the land is a very desirable one, and will be of great benefit to the city. I have the honor to inform you that the Committee on the subject have recommended that the purchase be made, and that the land be used for the proposed site of the new building of the Board of Education. I have the honor to inform you that the same has been referred to the Committee on the subject, and they are now engaged in a careful examination of the same.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
John H. Nelson, Secretary of the Board of Education.

Brown Company.

[illegible]

My last advertisement was sent to the "Young Ladies" and was also published in the "Boston Post, Herald," a newspaper published in Boston in the County of Suffolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, on the Saturday day of March 1847, and the work of said notice was published and reprinted at about a week past date before this being said day of Feb. 21st 1847 the day appointed as aforesaid for the meeting.

In pursuance of the foregoing order & instructions of the Union Company, sent at the Company's Room of the said Company in Washington Square on Thursday the twenty third day of July 1857 we have entered in the journal.

The Meeting was called to order by Joshua H. Wolcott Esq. the President of the Association, who presided on motion he then offered a Committee to receive and read (and he voted for officers for said Association, for the next next meeting.

Account of the Meeting. July 23^d 1857.

Notes were then given in for Clerk of said Company
the whole number of votes was twelve. Reading, &c.
reading the minutes and then, first shares and votes,
all which were for Augustus Hilditch, who was declared elected trustee.

Augustus Hilditch, then being introduced after the reading of his offer, the said Augustus Hilditch was sworn and qualified as by the following certificate appears.

Test etc. Philadelphia July 23^d 1857. Remedy,
William Augustus Hilditch, Clerk of the said Company, and I have seen that he is well qualified and competent to perform the duties of said office during the year ending and until another shall be chosen and qualified in his stead.

Witness my hand and seal this 23^d day of July 1857.
John H. Hilditch

The Honorable William L. Wright, then offered his account of the whole number of votes, and declared to be correct and given by a person sworn by all present
elected trustee.

Notes were then given in for Henry D. Wright for said Company for the year ending 1857.

The whole number of votes was twelve. Reading, &c.
the minutes and then, first shares and votes, all which were for

and they were therefore cash and all debts settled.

Tells were then given in for expenses of said company for the year just ending. The whole number of shares was eleven dollars, representing one share for each of the eleven members, all which were for William Wright, who was therefore indebted.

The Committee appointed at the last Annual Meeting of said Company to examine the accounts of the Treasurer and report thereon at this meeting, being called upon to report, Richard M. Chapman Esq. one of said Committee appeared, presented and read the Report following, which on motion was ordered to be accepted, recorded, and filed.

Resolved July 23rd 1867.

"The undersigned, one of the Committee appointed for the purpose, hereby certifying that he has examined the Cash Book, vouchers, Pay Rolls and Ledger Balance of the above of the above Company, and found them to be correct up to June 30th 1867.

R. M. Chapman."

It appearing that there had been no communication of the Treasurer's accounts during the year last past, and it being suggested, that there was and some expense incurred the above of the financial year in June, and the day of the Annual Meeting let the Treasurer Books be brought up in season for the examination of the same to be made and reported at said Annual Meeting, On Motion Resolved

Annual Meeting, July 22^d, 1853.

After appointing a Committee to receive and read the report of the officers for the past year, the meeting adjourned.

The next day, July 23^d, 1853, the whole number of reports were read, and the Committee to receive and read, all which were
 of the highest quality, and were well received.

Respectfully, however, that before taking action on the report of the officers, the said Committee were informed and satisfied as to the following, to-wit:

That the Committee, July 22^d, 1853, having received a report from the said Committee, that they had made each of the reports, and were prepared to take action on the same, the said Committee were informed and satisfied as to the same.

And the Committee of the Board,

the Committee, William L. Smith, then offered the Annual Report, which was read, accepted, and ordered to be printed and filed, for reference, that by all future meetings.

The next day, July 24th, 1853, the said Committee, for the past year, the whole number of reports were read, and the Committee to receive and read, all which were
 of the highest quality, and were well received.

Henry Davis moved that Amos and Henry were out in the morning, having each received a quantity of oil, the same amount, and of all the other members by and about were read and all declared satisfied in the order of said Committee, for the year just ending.

Peter J. Moore moved during said order, and William J. Holt moved that said order, especially in each case a fair number of things and more and better, they having been voted for a special for Boston.

Peter then then gave in for a Committee of said Company for the year just ending. The whole number of votes was ten dollars, of which one Amos and Henry gave three and others, all which were for William J. Holt, who was then declared elected.

The President then called for the Report of the Committee appointed at the last Annual Meeting to audit, examine and report upon, at that meeting, the accounts of the Treasurer and of the agents of said Company. Whereupon the following Report was presented, read, received and ordered to be received and filed:

General Meeting July 23rd 1853.

Wednesday, July 21st 1853.

There is to be held, that I have received the last stock of the type of the American Wharf Co. from July 1st 1853 to Jan 26th 1854, and have found it perfectly and correctly rendered and printed. Also the by title and first edition of the paper, and have found them correct.

H. W. Chapman
for Treasurer.

On motion of Samuel Wadsworth Esq. it was Voted, that in consequence of the postponement of holding the annual meeting of the American Wharf Co.
this season of the year, it is recommended for the action of the stockholders of said Company, in a future meeting, to the regularly called for said purpose, that the expenses of said Company be so altered as that the annual meeting to be held in such time in the month of December as may be found convenient.

By Motion made, it was Voted, that the Officers appoint two stockholders to audit and examine the books and accounts of the Treasurer and of the type of American Wharf Company, commencing in the year of the incorporation beginning last December, and to report on said accounts at the next annual meeting of said Company. Whereupon the President replied in having appointed to this duty, Thomas Lester A. Bates and Richard M. Chapman of Bridgewater which report will be presented to the stockholders in compliance with the order of the stockholders.

The Treasurer's Report was read and approved, and the meeting adjourned following to the next meeting.

A similar advertisement and notice to the foregoing in all respects, excepting that it bears date September 3, 1861, signed by said Clerk, was also published in the "Boston Daily Advertiser" a newspaper published in Boston, in the County of Suffolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, on the fifth day of September current: and so each of said notices was published and advertised as aforesaid, at least five days before this twelfth day of September A.D. 1861 the day appointed for this meeting, according with the By-Laws of said Company in such case made and provided.

Home Meeting, September 15th 1861.

In pursuance of the foregoing notice and advertisement, the Stockholders in the American Company, met at the Meeting Room of said Company on Wednesday afternoon, the 15th of September 1861, at close of the State in the presence.

The meeting was called to order by J. Huntington Belmont being the President of the said Company, who then proposed, as a motion, that a committee be appointed to receive and read a report of the affairs of said Company for the year then just ending.

Votes were then given in for Clerk for said Company. The whole number given in and reported was five hundred, representing two hundred Dollars and votes, all which were for Isaac Newton Harris, who was then proposed Clerk of said Company for the year then just ending.

Immediately thereafter, and before entering upon the duties of his said office, the said Clerk-elect was sworn and qualified by and before William C. Emory, Esq., a Justice of the Peace duly appointed and qualified for such for the County of York in the State of Maine, as by the following Certificate signed by the said William C. Emory appears.

Cert. of Qualification, September 15th 1861.
Whereas, I, William C. Emory, Justice of the Peace for the County of York, State of Maine, do hereby certify that the said Isaac Newton Harris, being duly sworn and qualified, and having taken the oath of fidelity, and having taken the oath of office, is and lawfully is the Clerk of said Company.

Most Dear Mother, I have just received a letter of your Company for the year just ending. I have received and before writing you the day of the letter. I have read it very carefully and with great interest. I think I have a great deal to say for you and I will endeavor to say it in a few words. I am glad to hear of the success of your Company and I am sure that you will be able to do much more for the cause in the future.

My dear Mr. [Name]

I have just received your letter of the 10th inst. and am glad to hear from you.

The paper which you mention is not yet published, but I shall be glad to see it when it comes out. I have been thinking of writing you for some time, but have been so busy that I could not find time.

Very truly yours,

I am very glad to hear that you are well and hope that you will continue to be so. I have been feeling better lately, but I am still not quite as well as I was some time ago. I have been thinking of writing you for some time, but have been so busy that I could not find time.

My dear Mr. Taylor
I have just received your letter of the 20th inst. in relation to the book on the "History of the English Language" which you have written. I have read it with much interest and pleasure. It is a very valuable work and I am sure it will be highly appreciated by all who are interested in the history of the English language. I have no objection to its being published and I am sure it will be a great success.

Yours truly

Samuel Johnson

Boston August 21st 1879

I hereby certify that I have audited the books of the Lacminia Co both those of the Agent at Providence and the Treasurer in Boston for the year ending June 30, 1879 as follows

The Cash and Vouchers, Journalizing and true balance Payroll, Receipts, Debt Ledger, Receipt book, Insurance policies, Notes and Cash on hand.

In my investigations have found that all Cash Credits sustained by Vouchers which appear to be legitimate and genuine - and that the balance of accounts of the Treasurer against the Agent at Providence and the Selling agents in Boston also Notes and cash of the Selling agents to this date of audit agree and everything in connection with the above correct and kept with accuracy.

Signed Charles F. Plimpton.
